Which best describes the decade of your birth?

The war's over, the USSR has the bomb, but I've got my dreamboat and we're having a bash.

Sean Connery is Bond, James Bond, your best friend smokes grass and it's finally common for women to wear pants.

Grab those bell-bottoms baby, it's time to disco. Fine, stay home. Maybe you'll finally see Columbo's wife.

Reagan is president, mullets are bodacious and people are feeling Hungry like the Wolf.

Ugh, as if. If you don't give back my scrunchy and my stringy-haired boyfriend's flannel shirt, I will hit you with my Tamagotchi.

Lindsay Lohan still has her shit together, ass cleavage seems totally appropriate and Iron Man was da bomb. Will Marvel make more superhero movies?

What kind of setting do you prefer? (feel free to check more than one)

The real world with normal people

The real world with nutjobs

The real world but not the one I ever see

The real world off its axis

Spaceships

The top of the castle next to the dragon's lair

Pick one from each of the following:
